

departments

44

PHOTO BY TYLER OXENDINE

guides

114

Community Guide

Knoxville's experts share their experiences in the courtroom and beyond.

122

Dining Guide

How better to catch a game than with a frosty mug of beer, a pile of wings, a big-screen TV, and a host of other fans? Check out Cityview's selection of the best sports bars in town.

50

PHOTO BY JIMMY CHIARELLA

34

Social Calendar

As summer winds down and the leaves start to turn, don't let the fall blues make you frown. Instead, get out on the town!

36

The Seen

For amateur and professional athletes alike, there were an abundance of fun sporting events these summer. Did Cityview snap you at one of these?

- SplashJam
- a3 Golf Tournament
- Dragon Boat Races

44

Conversations: Johnny Majors

Johnny Majors may be a retired football coach, but he's one active citizen! Find out what this Vol legend is up to this fall—and how you'll be hearing more from him soon.

46

Dining Out: Long's Drugstore

Pharmacy, soda fountain, luncheonette, and town legend—as long as there have been game days in Knoxville, Knoxvilleians have been meeting at Long's.

48

Local Politics:

Rocky Top Win for Me!

In Tennessee, sports and politics go hand-in-hand. Not only is the UT football coach the state's highest paid employee, but Vol wins and losses may actually have an effect on Election Day results.

50

Humor: The Knoxonomist

Should Knoxville host the Olympics? And whatever happened to the old Billy Meyers Stadium? Only the Knoxonomist can offer the people of Knoxville the truth on these important civic questions.

52

In the Zone: Teamwork Matters

Brittany Jackson dishes on playing for Pat Summitt, winning Lady Vols basketball games, and the importance of working together.

128

Arts in the Back: Carl Hess

This young Knoxville artist is showing the world that painting portraits is not a lost art. Here, he talks painting Pat Summitt, President Obama, and more.